

Campus Resources

Helping You Navigate College,
One Resource at a Time.

Need help or have questions? We've got you!

Schedule a meeting with your advisor on Starfish. It's quick and easy!

Stop by or reach out for help with things like:

- Academic advising & enrollment questions
- Picking your Liberal Arts Immersion or Minor
- Finding instructor contact info & filling out forms
- Room scheduling & class planning
- AP or transfer credit questions
- Studying abroad opportunities
- Taking summer classes elsewhere for RIT credit
- Or just to say hi—we love that too!

We're here to help you make the most of your RIT journey!

RIT | College of Liberal Arts
Office of Student Services

Location:
Liberal Arts Hall (LBR/006, Suite 2210)

Get Career-Ready with COLA Career Services!

Not sure where to start with your job or internship search?

We've got you covered with:

- Job search advice
- Résumé reviews
- Interview prep
- Career counseling
- Workshops & info sessions
- Career fairs and networking events

Your go-to person is:

Gretchen Eshleman, COLA Career Services Coordinator.

RIT | Office of Career
Services and Cooperative Education

Location:
Bausch & Lomb Center (BLC/077, 1st floor)

Need to give a presentation? We've got your back!

Meet with a Peer Consultant to get help with every part of your presentation—from start to finish.

We can help you with:

- Choosing the right topic
- Creating an outline that flows
- Designing eye-catching slides
- Practicing your delivery
- Calming those presentation nerves

Every session is personalized just for you.

Appointments are available in person, online,
or in small groups—whatever works best!

Let's make your next presentation your best one yet!

RIT | Expressive
Communication
Center

Location:
Wallace Library (WAL/005, Room 2550)

Need help with research or citations?

Reach out to COLA Librarian Alison Bersani – she's your go-to expert!

Looking for the perfect place to study?

The library has all kinds of spaces to match your style:

- Choosing the right topic
- Quiet zones for focus
- Group areas for collaboration
- Private study rooms for solo work
- Use Summon on the RIT Libraries homepage to access premium research articles & content—all free for students!

Open 24 hours on weekdays + extended hours on weekends—so you can study when it works for you!

Your study success starts here.

RIT | Libraries

Location:

Wallace Library (WAL/005)

Struggling with classes? Want to boost your study game? We're here for it!

The Academic Success Center offers tons of free programs and services to help you thrive—whether you're in the classroom, studying solo, or working with a group.

Here's what you'll find:

- Academic Coaching – One-on-one help to build better study habits
- Courses to help you succeed – Like Applied Study Strategies, Study Skills Lab, and Essential Study Techniques
- Study Skills Help – Learn how to manage your time, take better notes, and prep for exams
- Tutoring – For tons of subjects
- Math Support –
  - Struggling with math or returning after a break? We've got assessments and refresher sessions
  - Drop-in help for math & physics questions
  - Handouts from Algebra to Calculus (grab them online or in Bates-Gosnell 1200)
  - ACSC 72: Critical Math Skills course
- Online and in-person options available!
- No matter where you're starting, we'll help you level up your skills and confidence. Let's get to work!

RIT | Division of Academic Affairs Academic Success Center

Location:

Monroe Hall (MON/015, 2nd floor)

Need help with writing? Our staff is here for you!

Whether you're writing a paper, a project, or just getting started, we offer support for all students in any major to help you grow as a confident, creative writer.

What's available:

- 1-on-1 writing consultations
- Small group sessions
- Help at any stage of the writing process

Schedule your session at: rit.mywconline.com

Let's level up your writing together!

RIT | Division of Academic Affairs University Writing Program

Location:

Wallace Library (WAL/005)