

ROAR & SOAR

RIT | College of Liberal Arts

10 Go Global.

RIT Study Abroad

Successful students know that studying abroad can help set them apart in a global workforce. You can do this with any RIT major if you plan ahead.

3 Ways to ROAR this Week:

How to apply
for study abroad

Read about
COLA's GO
Grant and Student
Travel Fund

- Four steps to study abroad. It's never too early to start planning for study abroad. The first step is to learn about the different types of programs RIT offers. Start with step 1 and explore your options.
- Search study abroad options based on your major. All majors at RIT can study abroad if you plan ahead. Start now by reading the study abroad tips, suggested programs, scholarships, and other study abroad resources for College of Liberal Arts.
- Plus, find out about the College of Liberal Arts $500 GO Grant and Student Travel Fund awards that help cover some expenses for study abroad.
- Consider an RIT Global Campus. Studying abroad at one of RIT's global campuses is the easiest and most seamless way to incorporate an international experience into your major. You can travel to RIT Dubai, RIT Croatia, or RIT Kosovo.

Calendar Spotlight

Study Abroad 101 Group Advising Meeting

TUESDAYS, WEDNESDAYS & FRIDAYS

RIT Global Office, Global Village Bldg. 400, Room 2075

Summer Program at RIT Kosovo

TUESDAY, MAR. 25, 3–4:30 p.m., Student Alumni Union,
Bamboo Rooms 2610/2650

Get details at rit.edu/events