Introduction

Swift, Certain, and Fair is a collaborative initiative supported by the NYS Gun Involved Violence Elimination (GIVE) Program. It is a collaboration with probation that focuses on violent gun offenders.

- Swift: immediate sanction upon detection of a violation
- Certain: behavioral contract → consistency and predictability
- Fair: perception of legitimacy

The City of Rochester

The goal of Swift, Certain, & Fair is to reduce gun violence-related crime and victimization in the City of Rochester.

Target Population/Selection Criteria:
- 16-24 years old
- Pending gun-related felony charge (CPW2)
- No involvement in an on-going dispute
- No pending charges that involve harm to another
- Lower to minimum threat to the community
- Previous non-compliance history
- Gang-involved and/or gang-associated

Objectives

The Swift, Certain, & Fair program is unique in that it involves a strong line of communication and partnership with surrounding agencies.

Partnerships

The partners include:
- A gun court judge
- Assistant District Attorney
- Defense Attorney
- Prosecutors
- Public Defenders
- Probation
- Crime Analysis Center
- Research Partner

Methods

Preparation Stage

- Buy In Program Design
- Primary Screening (n=204)
- Secondary Screening
- Eligible Candidates (n=134)

Screening Stage

- Candidates Currently Pending Offer (n=18)
- Monthly Case Review Meeting
- Ineligible Candidates (n=134)

Implementation Stage

- Candidates Accepted SCF Offer (n=18)
- Candidates Rejected SCF Offer (n=6)
- Discharged from SCF due to successful completion (n=11)
- Discharged from SCF due to violation (n=2)

Results

In 2017, of the people charged with a gun offense, 8% were either newly enrolled into Swift, Certain and Fair or were previous participants in the program. Today, the number of people involved in the program ranges from 18 to 20 people.

Demographics:
- Young adult males (16 to 24 years old)
- Primarily African American and Hispanic.

Gun Courts:
- This chart contains data from two different judges within the gun court; however, all the Swift, Certain, and Fair cases are through Judge Moran.

2017 Gun Court Dispositions

- DOC5: 28%
- MCI: 42%
- Interim Probation: 5%
- Misc.: 17%
- SCF: 8%

Conclusions

1. As of right now, none of the participants in the Swift, Certain, and Fair program have violated their probation on another gun charge.
2. Two participants have successfully completed the program.
3. Participant thoughts on the program so far:
   - "It is a second chance."
   - Dislike: GPS monitoring

Limitations

1. Data collection and input around:
   - Gun court
   - ADA
   - Probation
2. Large Caseloads
3. Communication
4. Swiftness & Certainty

Future Implications

At the end of this evaluation, there will be a few things completed:
1. An implementation guideline
2. Screening Guidelines
3. An overall evaluation of the program
   - Focus Groups/ Matching
   - SCF vs. Non-SCF case outcomes
   - Race differences in sentencing
   - Perceptions from participants
   - Recidivism
4. Potential replication in another GIVE jurisdiction

Acknowledgments

The Swift, Certain, & Fair program is unique in that it involves a strong line of communication and partnership with surrounding agencies.

Monroe County Probation Department

Monroe County Judicial System

Monroe County Crime Analysis Center

CPSI Contact Information

Center for Public Safety Initiatives
Department of Criminal Justice
Building 1, Room 2383
Rochester Institute of Technology
www.rit.edu/cla/criminaljustice/cpsi