To receive your I-20 (or DS-2019) from RIT, you must submit:

- Copy of your passport personal information page
- Bank statement issued within the past six (6) months - Your acceptance letter will show the TOTAL USD you must demonstrate, based on your program (minus scholarship, if awarded one).
  - If the funds are not in your name, complete the form on the next page and submit it to the Sponsor Letter item in your Application Checklist.
  - Bank statements must verify liquid funds (checking/savings accounts). Term/Fixed deposits are allowed if the documents indicate a current maturity date and/or a statement confirming the funds are accessible any time.
  - You may upload a loan sanction letter in replacement of the bank statement.
- If you are a government/agency sponsored student, you should provide RIT with the financial guarantee from your sponsor.

Once admitted and your submitted documents have been declared acceptable, RIT will issue your I-20 (or DS-2019).

*Costs are estimates and typically increase each academic year. Personal expenses for travel, entertainment, etc., are not included in the figures above.

F-2 dependents: An additional $14,432 in financial support is required for the first dependent, and $7,216 for each additional dependent. Please indicate all dependents on the following page.
Declaration of Financial Support for International Students

Please Note: It is your responsibility to demonstrate that sufficient funding is available to meet all tuition and living expenses for the duration of your study at RIT. We cannot issue a Certificate of Eligibility (I-20 or DS-2019) until this form is completed, added to your Application Checklist with all appropriate supporting documents and the supporting documents are approved by the Office of Graduate Enrollment Services.
