Undergraduate Declaration of Financial Support/Sponsor Letter Confidential

Enrolling students are responsible for demonstrating that sufficient funding is available to meet all tuition and living expenses for the duration of their study at RIT. A Certificate of Eligibility (I-20 or DS-2019) cannot be issued until the following document(s) have been submitted and approved by the Office of International Enrollment:

- Declaration of Financial Support/Sponsor Letter (below, including projected support amounts). The amount indicated (plus any scholarship funding offered by RIT or outside sources) must total or exceed the cost of attendance at RIT (including tuition, housing, meals, fees, health insurance, and estimated costs for books). Note: please refer to the 2026-2027 cost of attendance for RIT new undergraduate students.

AND

- A bank statement or bank letter indicating the amount of liquid funds available for your first year of study.

TO SUBMIT

- Once completed, submit a saved version to your RIT applicant portal at join.rit.edu/account/login. Look for the Upload Materials section within the My Application tab. Within the dropdown, select Visa Document: Declaration of Financial Support/Sponsor Letter and upload your file.
