

Undergraduate Declaration of Financial Support/Sponsor Letter

Confidential

Enrolling students are responsible for demonstrating that sufficient funding is available to meet all tuition and living expenses for the duration of their study at RIT. A Certificate of Eligibility (I-20 or DS-2019) cannot be issued until the following document(s) have been submitted and approved by the Office of International Enrollment:

- Declaration of Financial Support/Sponsor Letter (below, including projected support amounts). The amount indicated (plus any scholarship funding offered by RIT or outside sources) must total or exceed the cost of attendance at RIT (including tuition, housing, meals, fees, health insurance, and estimated costs for books).
Note: please refer to the 2024-2025 cost of attendance for RIT new undergraduate students.

OR

- College Board’s College Scholarship Service Profile (CSS Profile) or RIT’s International Student Financial Aid Application (RITISFAA), required for applicants seeking limited need-based funding from RIT.

AND

- A bank statement or bank letter indicating the amount of liquid funds available for your first year of study.

TO SUBMIT

- Once completed, submit a saved version to your RIT admissions portal at join.rit.edu/account/login. Look for the Upload Materials section within the My Application tab. Within the dropdown, select Visa Document: Declaration of Financial Support/Sponsor Letter and upload your file.
