

Declaration of Financial Support

Note: Enrolling students are responsible for demonstrating that sufficient funding is available to meet all tuition and living expenses for the duration of their study at RIT. A Certificate of Eligibility (I-20 or DS-2020) cannot be issued until the following document(s) have been submitted to admissions@rit.edu and approved by the Office of International Enrollment:

- Declaration of Financial Support (below, including projected support amounts). The amount indicated (plus any scholarship funding offered by RIT or outside sources) must total or exceed the cost of attendance at RIT (including tuition, housing, meals, fees, health insurance, and estimated costs for books). Note: the total cost of attendance for the 2020-21 academic year is approximately $65,500.

OR

- College Board's International Student Financial Aid Application (ISFAA), required for applicants seeking limited need-based funding from RIT.

AND

- A bank statement or bank letter indicating the amount of liquid funds available for your first year of study.
