

N.A.D. Victory Fund Now Totals $7,536.49

B. B. Burnes, secretary-treasurer of the National Association of the Deaf, has released his latest report of the Victory Fund, showing a total amount of $7,536.49 now in the Fund. Included in the report are contributions amounting to a total of $523.88, sent in by President Ebin of the Empire State Association, New York. This sizeable contribution from New York puts that state in first place, with a total of $1,174.17. Washington State has ousted Illinois from sixth place in the standings. The top six states now stand in this order: New York, California, Virginia, Texas, Oregon, and Washington.

The N.A.D. officials have been in communication with officials of the War Department, the Red Cross, the USO, and other organizations relative to disposition of the Victory Fund, but no decision has been made as yet. As soon as possible, they will settle on an appropriate gift of some kind.
