

Redesign of PEN-International Web Pages

<http://www.pen.ntid.rit.edu>

E. William Clymer

June 24, 2005

Goals of Redesign

- Existing Website Served Well for Five Years
- Improve “Universal Portal” Concept
- Easier to Use
- Improve Access to Information

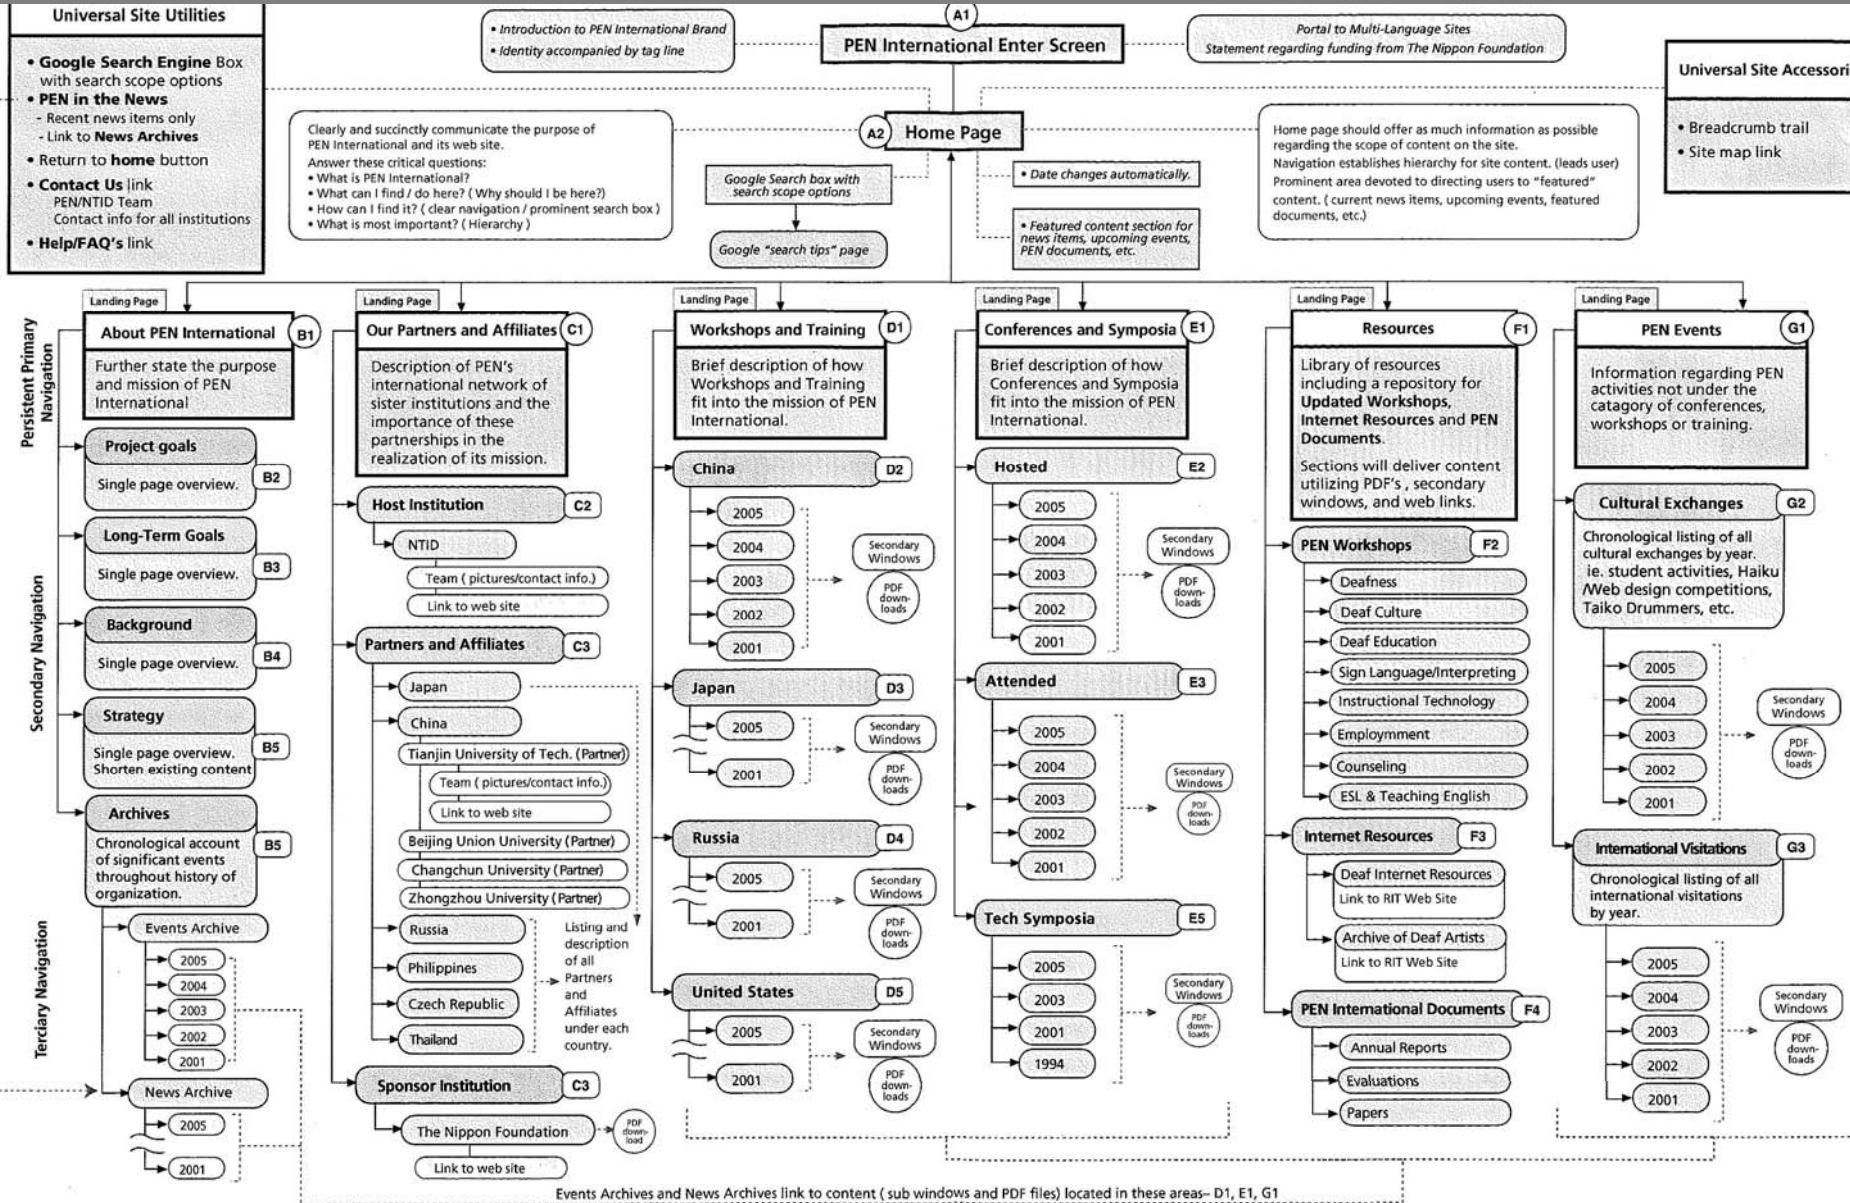

Objectives

- Better User Interface
- Design by Consultant;
 - Maintained and Updated by PEN Staff
- Provide Platform for Posting
 - News
 - Workshop/Training Resources
- Searchable
- Archive for Annual Report

[The Process with Consultants]

- Design Brief Apr 05
- Develop Site Architecture May 05
- Identity Enhancement Jun 05
- User Interface Aug 05
- Programming & Testing TBD
- Publish Site Mar 06

Site Architecture

Home

Contact Us

PEN in the News

PEN International

Positively Influencing the
Postsecondary Education of
Students Who Are Deaf

Recent News

Upcoming Events

Our Purpose

PEN International is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only.

More About PEN

News

PEN-International Participates in the Western Symposium on Deafness. The Symposium was a regional conference focusing on postsecondary education and deafness.
(April 2005) More...

Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing Students in Japan Meet to Discuss PEPNet-Japan Deaf students in the Tohoku area of Japan met with students from TCT on 3 April via videoconference.
(May 2005) More...

2005 International Tech Symposium

One of PEN-International's major outcomes for project year three was the planning of a wide array of training, outreach and business activities that were.

Learn more about the 2005 International Tech Symposium...

Home
Contact Us

PEN in the News

PEN International

Positively Influencing the
Postsecondary Education of
Students Who Are Deaf

Recent News

Our Purpose

PEN International is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only.

More About PEN

News

PEN-International Participates in the Western Symposium on Deafness. The Symposium was a regional conference focusing on postsecondary education and deafness.
(April 2005) More...

Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing Students in Japan Meet to Discuss PEPNet-Japan Deaf students in the Tohoku area of Japan met with students from TCT on 3 April via videoconference.
(May 2005) More...

Upcoming Events

2005 International Tech Symposium

One of PEN-International's major outcomes for project year three was the planning of a wide array of training, outreach and business activities that were.

Learn more about the 2005 International Tech Symposium...

Home

Contact Us

PEN in the News

PEN International

Positively Influencing the Postsecondary Education of
Students Who Are Deaf

Recent News

Upcoming Events

Our Purpose

PEN International is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only.

> More About PEN

News

PEN-International Participates in the Western Symposium on Deafness. The Symposium was a regional conference focusing on postsecondary education and deafness.

(April 2005) More...

Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing Students in Japan Meet to Discuss PEPNet-Japan Deaf students in the Tohoku area of Japan met with students from TCT on 3 April via videoconference.

(May 2005) More...

2005 International Tech Symposium

One of PEN-International's major outcomes for project year three was the planning of a wide array of training, outreach and business activities that were.

Learn more about the 2005 International Tech Symposium...

Home

Contact Us

PEN in the News

PEN International

Positively Influencing the Postsecondary Education of Students Who Are Deaf

Recent News

Upcoming Events

Our Purpose

PEN International is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only.

More About PEN

News

PEN-International Participates in the Western Symposium on Deafness. The Symposium was a regional conference focusing on postsecondary education and deafness.
(April 2005) More...

Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing Students in Japan Meet to Discuss PEPNet-Japan Deaf students in the Tohoku area of Japan met with students from TCT on 3 April via videoconference.
(May 2005) More...

2005 International Tech Symposium

One of PEN-International's major outcomes for project year three was the planning of a wide array of training, outreach and business activities that were.

Learn more about the 2005 International Tech Symposium...

Home

Contact Us

PEN in the News

PEN International

Positively Influencing the Postsecondary Education of Students Who Are Deaf

Recent News

Upcoming Events

Our Purpose

PEN International is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only.

More About PEN

News

PEN-International Participates in the Western Symposium on Deafness. The Symposium was a regional conference focusing on postsecondary education and deafness.
(April 2005) More...

Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing Students in Japan Meet to Discuss PEPNet-Japan Deaf students in the Tohoku area of Japan met with students from TCT on 3 April via videoconference.
(May 2005) More...

2005 International Tech Symposium

One of PEN-International's major outcomes for project year three was the planning of a wide array of training, outreach and business activities that were.

Learn more about the 2005 International Tech Symposium...

Home

Contact Us

PEN in the News

PEN International
Positively Influencing the
Postsecondary Education of
Students Who Are Deaf

Recent News

Upcoming Events

Our Purpose

PEN International is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only.

More About PEN

News

PEN-International Participates in the Western Symposium on Deafness. The Symposium was a regional conference focusing on postsecondary education and deafness.
(April 2005) More...

Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing Students in Japan Meet to Discuss PEPNet-Japan Deaf students in the Tohoku area of Japan met with students from TCT on 3 April via videoconference.
(May 2005) More...

2005 International Tech Symposium

One of PEN-International's major outcomes for project year three was the planning of a wide array of training, outreach and business activities that were.

Learn more about the 2005 International Tech Symposium...

Home

Contact Us

PEN in the News

PEN International

Positively Influencing the
Postsecondary Education of
Students Who Are Deaf

Recent News

Upcoming Events

Our Purpose

PEN International is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only.

More About PEN

News

PEN-International Participates in the Western Symposium on Deafness. The Symposium was a regional conference focusing on postsecondary education and deafness.
(April 2005) More...

Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing Students in Japan Meet to Discuss PEPNet-Japan
Deaf students in the Tohoku area of Japan met with students from TCT on 3 April via videoconference.
(May 2005) More...

2005 International Tech Symposium

One of PEN-International's major outcomes for project year three was the planning of a wide array of training, outreach and business activities that were.

Learn more about the 2005 International Tech Symposium...

Search Tips

Google Search

Go

Search PEN Site

Search RIT.edu

Site Map

About PEN International

Our Partners

Workshops and Training

Conferences and Symposia

Resources

PEN Events

Home

Contact Us

PEN in the News

Positively Influencing the Postsecondary Education of
Students Who Are Deaf

Recent News

Upcoming Events

Our Purpose

PEN International is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only.

More About PEN

News

PEN-International Participates in the Western Symposium on Deafness. The Symposium was a regional conference focusing on postsecondary education and deafness.
(April 2005) More...

Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing Students in Japan Meet to Discuss PEPNet-Japan
Deaf students in the Tohoku area of Japan met with students from TCT on 3 April via videoconference.
(May 2005) More...

2005 International Tech Symposium

One of PEN-International's major outcomes for project year three was the planning of a wide array of training, outreach and business activities that were.

Learn more about the 2005 International Tech Symposium...

About PEN International

Our Partners

Workshops and Training

Conferences and Symposia

Resources

PEN Events

Search Tips

Google Search

Go

Search PEN Site

Search RIT.edu

Site Map

About PEN International

Our Partners

Workshops and Training

Conferences and Symposia

Resources

PEN Events

Host Institution

Partners and Affiliates

Sponsor Institution

Home

Contact Us

PEN in the News

Partners and Affiliates

Home > Our Partners > Partners and Affiliates

Japan

China

Russia

Phillipines

Czech Republic

Thailand

Partnership and PEN International is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only.

About PEN International

Our Partners

Workshops and Training

Conferences and Symposia

Resources

PEN Events

Home

Contact Us

PEN in the News

Partners and Affiliates

Home > Our Partners > Partners and Affiliates

Japan

China

Russia

Philippines

Czech Republic

Thailand

Partnership and PEN International is greeking and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only. This is greeking and for position only. This is body copy and for position only.

Discussion

- Design Process
- Review by PEN-Partners
- Full Implementation