

Classroom Communication Strategies

This is a 2-hour videotaped panel discussion, moderated by Robb Adams, chairperson of Counseling Services at NTID. The panelists consist of Dr. Alan Hurwitz, Vice President/ Dean of NTID; Donna Gustina, Chairperson, Department of ASL and Interpreter Education, and two students, one of whom is a cochlear implant user. The main topic of discussion is on strategies for accommodating individual communication preferences and needs.

The panelists discuss their experiences with various classroom communication modes at NTID, and offer practical tips for effective communication. There is also a question-and-answer period with the audience.
