

Questions about the TUT Program for the Deaf

1. How many deaf students are there at TUT? 150 people.
2. How many faculty members are there at the Technical College for the Deaf at TUT?
_____24 people_____
- a. Are any deaf? No Yes If Yes, how many? _____

3. What occupations have deaf people historically held in China?

In history Chinese economy was not developed and the cultural level of the deaf was lower, so the deaf only worked as an individual handicrafts man or as a worker in a welfare factory. In these years, with the deaf 's educational level improving the range in which they do has become larger, e.g. as a teacher, an artist, an operator for computer etc.

4. What occupations does your program prepare deaf students to hold?

Our program prepares deaf students to easily hold the occupations in the society where they can fully exert their ability of stronger vision and will be able to bring into play their advantages; where work can be finished independently and sound cannot be used.

5. Have your deaf graduates been able to find jobs for which they were prepared in your college?
- a. No Yes If Yes, please list those jobs?

Ad designs, ichnographic designs, making effective drawings, typists and teachers.

6. Are there laws that limit the jobs that can be held by deaf persons? No Yes
- a. If Yes, Please describe them: _____

7. Describe any support or other services that TUT provides graduates searching for a job.

The businesses are allowed to come to TUT to select the graduates they need; We recommend the graduates to the businesses with their recommendations, grades and behavior at school. We also hold meetings of applications for jobs to let graduates to choose the job they are interested in .

8. Does TUT have any relationships with the businesses that hire TUT deaf graduates?

a. No Yes If Yes, Please list those businesses.

1. Hefei Special Education Center
 2. Nanjing No 19 High School
 3. Jiaxing Electric Power Bureau, Zhejiang Province
 4. Mumian County Statistic Bureau, Sichuan Province
 5. Wuhan Water Conservancy and Electric Power University
 6. Beijing Century Scenery Company
 7. Tianjin Fushi Light & Electricity Machinery Co.ltd.
 8. CPCC, Jiujiang General Plant
 9. Jiangsu Petroleum Exploration Bureau
 10. Wuhan Normal University
 11. Wuhan Changfei Light Fiber company
 12. Nanjing Post and Telecommunications College
 13. Research Center for Special Education of China
 14. Anfu International Security Equipment Company
- Etc. 110 businesses in all.