

Welcome to our visitors from the Korean National College of Rehabilitation and Welfare!

Steve Nelson, Director, Access Services
Rochester Institute of Technology
National Technical Institute for the Deaf
February 3, 2010

Who we are?

Real-time Captioning	51 staff C-Print™ (47 FTE)
Interpreting	132 staff (116 FTE)
Note taking	~400 student notetakers

What we did last year?

Academic Year 2008 - 2009

Real-time Captioning	18,168 hours/year
Interpreting	109,618 hours/year
Note taking	63,291 hours/year

2,381 course sections, nearing 25% of all RIT offerings

Interpreting splits- about 75% courses, 20% student co-curricular, 5% administrative use

Practices Developed

- Student Note takers – good students, trained, detailed outlines of content delivered via www.
- Skilled interpreters - career ladder, specializations, preparation time, mentoring, professional development
- Real-time captioning (CART, C-Print), laptops, transcripts as .doc
- WWW-based data system myAccess.rit.edu

Coming?

- Remote service delivery
- Increased services, diversity

What's on your mind?