Math Competition
Registration Opens
December 1, 2022

The NTID Middle School Math Competition returns in 2023 with some exciting changes! This year, the competition will begin with four regional competitions leading up to a national competition at RIT/NTID on March 31- April 2, 2023. Teams in each region meet and compete to earn a spot at nationals. Your region is determined by your school address and the state the school is in. See map and find out the region for which your school qualifies.

More information about the 2023 Math Competition can be found at rit.edu/ntid/mathcompetition.
