

FACULTY FORECAST

February 2019

Faculty Career Development in the Innovative Learning Institute promotes faculty success through programs and services at all stages of your career. Listed below are several opportunities for you as part of our Faculty Success Series. Click on each event title for details and registration.

Mid-Tenure Review Info-Session/Panel Discussion

Thursday, February 28, 3-4:30 pm

An opportunity for tenure-track faculty to learn about this important process and ask questions about requirements for the mid-tenure review.

Mid-Semester Writing Micro-Retreat

Friday, March 8, 11:30-3:30 pm

Come to the micro-retreat to jump-start scholarly writing project during Spring Break that you want to jump-start. Networking lunch is included. All faculty are welcome.

Presenting a Strong Promotion Case: A Discussion with the Provost and Senior Leaders

Friday, March 22, 2:30-4 pm

The first in a series of three sessions for faculty considering or planning to submit materials for promotion review to full professor or senior/principal lecturer. Details on other available soon.

COACHE Faculty Job Satisfaction Survey - Full-time faculty recently received an invitation to participate in this survey. We encourage you to share your views of RIT and your experiences as a faculty member. Learn more about RIT's COACHE results from 2013 and 2016.

After Spring Break - FCD will be offering more opportunities to learn about your promotion package, a workshop on book publishing, and our annual end-of-semester Faculty Recognition Coffee Break!

FCD designs and delivers events during the academic year based on topics from our faculty community. If there is anything you might suggest for future events, please let us know your ideas: FCDS@RIT.EDU.