FORM 10
Chemistry MS Program
RIT

Grading Sheet: Graduate Student Seminar/Presentation 2

The purpose of the final graduate student seminar is to present a summary of their graduate MS research, and in the case of a thesis MS, to defend their thesis.

Please assist in assigning a grade for the seminar by ______________________’s

Graduate Advisor

student __________________________ on __________ entitled

Student’s Name Date

Seminar Title

Thank You.

Grade ________

Written evaluation of format, style, slides, knowledge, content, etc.:

___________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________

Your Name

cc: School Office Graduate Advisor
Graduate Director
Student (Mail Folder)

Form initiated by: Graduate Advisor
Applicability: Thesis & Project

Chem MS P&P Manual -42- 2013/05/08