FORM 10
Chemistry MS Program
RIT

Grading Sheet: Graduate Student Seminar/Presentation 2

The purpose of the final graduate student seminar is to present a summary of their graduate MS thesis research and to defend their thesis. Please assist in assigning the seminar by ______________________’s Graduate Advisor student ______________________ on ________ entitled ______________________.

Seminar Title

Please assess the

Unable to assess    Low   High student’s depth of knowledge of the field

student’s breadth of knowledge of the field
quality of the student’s results
significance of the student’s results student’s presentation of the material quality of the visual aids organization of the seminar
overall presentation quality
appropriately referenced materials

Please elaborate on your above ratings.

_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________