

OH MY GOD SEAL EBOARD MEETING NUMBER 1 10/13/2013

First things first, NO VIGILANTING PEOPLE CMON

The 411 on meetings

- Now following "Roberts Rule"
- Implementing task forces for different projects with E-Board facilitators
- Getting EVR and Financial Certified (Nim sent an email)
- Using Powerpoints at each meeting

Rochester Soil and Conservation

- Marking storm drains with posters and markers
- Sunday 10/20/2013
- In Brighton, NY
- Still waiting on a place and a time
- Looking for different volunteers to help

Habitat for Humanity

- Possibly helping them build houses
- They always have different things going on
- Maybe work with the lacrosse team

E-Recycle

- Since we have contract problems we may have to do it in the spring
- One idea was handing out T-Shirts on the different days
- Doing several days of collection and store in warehouse
- Then, maybe testing some and selling them back to students
- Still need to finalize contract with the E-Vendor
- Also hand out informational pamphlets

T-Shirts:

- Designing SEAL tshirts with different variations
  - Black and white
  - Limited colors
- Possibility: 100% organic or made out of recycled bottles?
- Have the members purchase t-shirts
- Have a separate t-shirts for others to have

Community

- Talking to other schools and their clubs

- Having a sustainability conference in the spring
- “Environmental Summit”
- Using speakers and professors to help get the word out

Campaign:

- SEAL approval
  - Landing page on our website
- Talk to other clubs on campus
- Buttons?!

Food Drive:

- Getting food together for different food places
- Examples: Pittsford Food Cupboard, Recover Rochester

Recover Rochester:

- They take food from dining halls to soup kitchens
- Maybe using reusable tubs or sustainable packaging
- Tupperware trade (use task force?)

Pharmaceutical Drive

- Maybe this semester
- Same setup as e-recycle just for the pills
