Center for Statesmanship, Law, and Liberty's 1st Annual AP Friday: American Statesmanship & Political Greatness

Purpose: To immerse area high school students in a college learning experience led by top teacher-scholars who seek to enrich their understanding of the role of statesmanship in American history and government. The content, sources, and instruction provided also seeks to help students prepare for the AP exam.

The Center for Statesmanship, Law, and Liberty (Center) located at the Rochester Institute of Technology (RIT) has been formed to promote an understanding of the crucial role of statesmanship in founding, perpetuating, and enhancing a free society under the rule of law. As the Founders of the American republic well realized, this aim depends upon the ability to cultivate both responsible citizens and statespeople capable of meeting future political, economic, and social challenges. The Center understands the concept of statesmanship as a universal norm that is inclusive of race, gender, creed, color, and political affiliation.
