- Also, the most recent RIT Student Life Facebook post <http://bit.ly/2zG8HXG> has information about reserving a seat for Thanksgiving dinner at Dr. Sandy Johnson's house. If you wish to attend, you must register by this Thursday, 11/16.

2. “Unification” Global Union's signature event is in Ingle Auditorium this Saturday.

Get your tickets at www.rittickets.com

3. Note that CPT employment can only be used for co-op. It cannot be used after degree completion.

You can learn more about CPT, OPT, or AT (for J-1 visas) here: www.rit.edu/studentaffairs/iss/

4. RIT shuttle transportation schedules over break may be found here:

<https://www.rit.edu/fa/facilities/pats/transportation/bus.html>

NOTE: There is no RIT Shuttle service on Nov 23.

The RTS #24 bus runs on their “Sunday/Holiday” schedule on Thanksgiving Day (Thursday).

5. Reminders about travel procedures.

Please check your I-20 or (DS-2019 if you are on a J visa) and ensure you have a travel signature from this current academic year (signed during or after August 2017).

If you need a travel signature, please bring your document to ISS this week.

6. The majority of offices RIT (including ISS) will be closing at 2 PM on Wednesday, November 22.

Emergencies over break can still be directed to Public Safety at 585-475-3333. Public Safety can also connect you with an emergency counselor.

On behalf of the whole ISS team, have a great Thanksgiving and a safe & relaxing break!
