Steps to be completed:

1. Activate your RIT computer account and RIT email before this Monday, July 15. Many action steps you need to take require that you have your RIT email account activated. You have received an account activation email to the email address you used when applying to RIT.

2. Register for your RIT ID by August 15. You will be able to pick up your RIT ID when you arrive on campus for Orientation. Click here for more details.

3. If you’ve missed the July 1 deadline to submit your health forms, please go to wellnessportal.rit.edu to complete your forms now. All forms must be completed by August 1. You will need your RIT log-in and password.
Academics at RIT

RIT offers an incredible array of academic programs, sophisticated facilities, and a diverse, committed, and accessible faculty. We place an emphasis on experiential learning, advising, and support services designed to ensure your academic success.

Refer to the Academic Checklists on the New Student Orientation website for required steps and information pertaining to your specific program. A tentative fall semester class schedule will be available via RIT's Student Information System (SIS) on August 1.

Goodbye, Goodbuy!

The Goodbye, Goodbuy! sale provides students with a variety of goods for thrift store prices. The sale will take place during Orientation week from Tuesday, August 20 to Friday, August 23. Items include furniture, clothing, electronics, kitchenware, office supplies, and more. Find more information here.

What to Bring

On the RIT Housing website you will find a comprehensive list on what to bring and what not to bring to the residence halls. Click here to access the list.
