The Student Conduct Process

Student receives a Charge Letter via their RIT email account

Student can request an advocate or advisor of choice, pre-hearing, and/or witnesses (all optional)

The Conduct Hearing is scheduled: Students are notified with the details via their RIT email account

Student attends the Conduct Hearing

Student does not attend the Conduct Hearing (if absent, the student will receive the outcome their case via their RIT email account)

Hearing Officer deliberates and decides if the student is:

- RESPONSIBLE
  - Student is assigned:
    - Warning
    - Probation
    - Suspension
    - Expulsion
    - Assigned Educational Outcome(s)

- NOT RESPONSIBLE
  - No outcomes are assigned

Appeals Process: A student with a status of probation or higher may appeal under certain circumstances (i.e. cases of process error, too severe of an outcome, or if new information is revealed)

Student accepts status outcome, including any assigned educational outcomes

Once all outcomes have been completed:
  - The hearing officer will be notified
  - The case will be considered closed

This flow chart is intended as guidance to the steps in the process for handling concerns about student misconduct under RIT’s Student Conduct Process Policy D18.0. For a complete description of the process and definitions of the terms used herein, please refer to Policy D18.0 and related procedures.