

Study Abroad For Art & Design Students

4 Reasons Art & Design Students Should Study Abroad

Immerse yourself in a new culture, develop new ways of thinking, and find inspiration in a new environment to gain a fresh perspective on your work.

Interact with students, faculty, and artists from around the world, experiencing diverse perspectives and techniques to enrich your creative process.

Learn about global trends in art and design that can enhance your work and help you create a truly unique portfolio.

Museums, galleries, buildings, outdoor spaces, and monuments will become your classroom as you explore art, architecture, and design firsthand.

Featured Programs

DIS - Study in Scandinavia

Copenhagen, Denmark Fall, Spring, Summer

Scandinavian design is one of the world's most recognizable and impactful styles. In addition to classroom-based learning and projects, students on DIS programs also participate in site visits and meet with experts in the field through program study tours.

Coursework available in: Architecture, Art History, Interior Design, Urban Design, Furniture Design, Graphic Design, Photography (summer only)

No language requirements. Courses taught in English.

Santa Reparata International School of Art (SRISA)

Florence, Italy Fall, Spring, Summer

Study at Santa Reparata International School of Art (SRISA), one of Italy's top art and design schools. Located in Florence, SRISA has extensive studio facilities and offers courses in Fine Art (Painting, Drawing, Sculpture), Photography, Printmaking, Interior Design, Graphic Design, Textile Design, Jewelry Design, Fashion Design, Art History, and Liberal Arts.

No language requirements. All courses are taught in English. Internship options are also available.

When You Should Go

The optimal time for CAD students to go abroad is during the spring semester of their third year. However, work with your academic advisor to determine the best timing for you.

Start your planning six months to a year in advance.

Scholarships

RIT Education Abroad Travel Grants ($500-$1,000) available for global campus, faculty-led, or exchange programs.

RIT School of Design awards a $1,000 study abroad scholarship to a 2nd or 3rd year School of Design undergraduate student each year (deadline in October). *Eligible majors: 3D Digital Design, Graphic Design, Industrial Design, Interior Design, New Media Design, Visual Communication Design)

Financial aid and many more scholarships available! Ask a study abroad advisor for more details.
