

Galina Kirsanova graduated from Moscow State Linguistics University and has been teaching English to undergraduate and graduate students of Radio-Electronics and Laser Department of Bauman University for over 25 years. This includes 12 years of teaching deaf and hard-of-hearing students of the BMSTU-based Center on Deafness with a focus on Grammar and Reading Comprehension. She participated in faculty training programs at NTID at RIT and BMSTU, and took part in the PEN-International Teacher-Training Seminar in Prague in 2004 and in the English Think Tank (Literacy in the English Classroom and Beyond Conference) in 2005 in Rochester as a presenter.