

Irina A. Ginzberg was born in Moscow to deaf parents. Since 1993, she worked as a sing-language interpreter and since 2000 as a teacher of sign language at the State Specialized Institute of Art. In 2000, Irina graduated from the department of psychology of the Sholokhov Moscow State Open Pedagogical University, and then in 2005 she did a retraining course at the department of “Scenic Speech” of “Shchukin Drama Institute” at E. Vahtangov Great Academician Theater. She has been working as a sign language interpreter at Bauman Moscow State Technical University since 2003.