Mayumi Shirasawa is an assistant professor in the Research and Support Center on Higher Education for the Visually and Hearing Impaired, Tsukuba University of Technology, Japan. She is also the program coordinator of the Postsecondary Education Programs Network of Japan (PEPNet-Japan). She holds a Ph.D. in Disability Studies, and her research focused on an objective analysis of Spoken Japanese to Japanese Sign Language interpreting. She is also a certified Japanese Sign Language interpreter.