

Ms. Machiko Takagi graduated from Sacred Heart University in Tokyo. She was employed for NHK Broadcasting Company, and then worked as a freelance English-Japanese business translator/interpreter. Since 2000, she has been handling international affairs for the Japanese Federation of the Deaf (JFD) and World Federation of the Deaf (WFD) Regional Secretariat in Asia. She accompanies JFD and WFD representatives to the UN ESCAP, World Bank, WFD World Congress, Deaflympics and numerous other international conferences as an English-Japanese Sign Language interpreter.