

Li Zigang will be an English Interpreter at the Summer Leadership Institute. He received an education with a specialty in English at Tianjin Normal University, and has been in the field of higher education of the deaf since 2002. He is an instructor and master at TUT, and his main responsibilities include teaching College English, conducting research on English classroom teaching, on English reading and writing skills, and techniques as a non-mother-tongue for the deaf.