

My name is Louise Buglass, 20 and my hometown is Birmingham. I am currently studying Illustration BA (Hons) at Wolverhampton University. My previous studies include all GCSEs and Art, Maths and English A-Levels, along with a Merit Pass in Art Foundation. My passion involves art, photography, quotes, exploring cities, and partying, socialising and reading books. As a part-time job, I am a graphic freelancer, illustrating a variety of maps. My ambition is to become an illustrator/author designing for magazines/books and to expand my creativity.
