

Nice to meet all of you! My name is Yoshiyuki Watanabe learning the design of machinery at Tsukuba University of Technology which is a university for deaf students in Japan. The overseas institute is the third for me. I have been to North Europe and Korea. I would like to turn my previous experience to this institute. I hope to see all of you in August.