

Role Modeling and Volunteerism: Get Involved!

Alim Chandani

Vicki T. Hurwitz

Thursday, August 10, 2008

3:15 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Who are your Heroes/ Role
Models?

Activity- Human Tracing

- Divide into groups
- Pick one person to trace on poster
- Identify and draw the important parts of the body that represents a role model to you.
- Be Creative.

Role Modeling

Definition:

- A person who serves as an example of a positive behavior
- A person who has the qualities that you would like to have
- A person who affects you in a way that makes you want to be a better person
- A person who teaches you about yourself
- A person who encourages you to believe you can get to where you are
- More?

Alim's Past Role Models

- Karey Pine (Advisor/Mentor)

- Student Leaders

- Friends in the Deaf Community

Vicki's Past Role Models

- Husband

- Supervisor

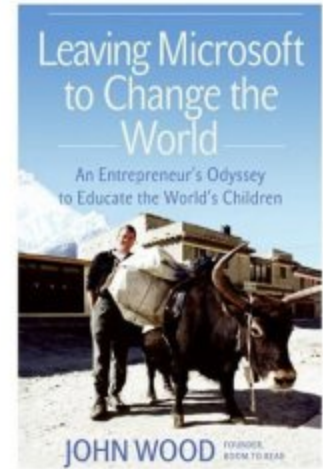

- Guest speaker

Alim's Current Role Models

- John Wood
 - Author of “Room to Read”
 - Co-Founder who left Microsoft

- Students

- Aamir Khan
 - Bollywood Actor

Vicki's Current Role Models

- Alan

- Friend

Unknown Role Models

- Who were your role models when you were in elementary school?
- What did they do that impressed you the most?

Familiar Role Models

- Who are your role models today?
- What did they do that impressed you the most?

Activity - Celebrities

- Each group receives an envelope with a picture of a famous person in it
- Discuss the person
- Give whole group a brief on how that person is and why he/she is a role model

Why Role Model?

- Discussion

What is Volunteerism?

- Divide into groups
- Come up with a skit of an example that defines volunteerism.

Volunteerism

- People with enthusiasm and dedication to goals that make organizations succeed.
- It makes a difference by contributing one's time, energy, and talents to the causes one holds dear.
- Willingness to work without expectation of pay (works for free, not expecting a tangible gain)

What else?

- Providing support to a needy cause
- Inspiring and sharing experiences and successes with others
- Positioning yourself as a resource for others
- Team building
- Enhancing public relations
- Working with a diverse group of people
- Developing priorities

What Happens when You Volunteer?

- You will
 - Feel good about yourself and others
 - Develop personal growth and spiritual fulfillment
 - Receive work experience
 - Connect with others who will increase your impact
 - Learn
 - Produce

Examples of Volunteer Opportunities (Alim)

- Student Body Government in College
- Asian Deaf Club
- Community Service at Church
- Open Door Mission during Christmas/Thanksgiving
- Traveling internationally and volunteer my time at deaf schools
- Global Youth Connect in Cambodia
- Global Reach Out (GRO)

Examples of Volunteer Opportunities (Vicki)

- Jewish Hospital

- Goldstein Club

- B'nai B'rith Girls

- CIDAA

- ESAD Empire State Association of the Deaf

- DWR/DWU

- ASADV

Reasons to Volunteer?

1. To explore a new career
2. To make new friends
3. To learn new skills
4. To support the local community
5. To do something different
6. To travel
7. To donate professional skills
8. To do something with friends

Starting a Volunteering Club

- Give a brief instructions on what is required to start a club
- Develop a Mission and Vision Statements
- Come up with 3 Goals
- Present it to the audience of convincing us to join the volunteering club

Feedback

- ???