

PEN-International/NYU Visit

January 7, 2005

PEN-International representatives –

Dr. James DeCaro
Director, PEN-International
National Technical Institute for the Deaf

Dr. Mayumi Shirasawa
Tsukuba College of Technology, Japan

The Northeast Technical Assistance Center (NETAC) representative –

Desiree Duda
Coordinator, the Northeast Technical Assistance Center
National Technical Institute for the Deaf/LaGuardia Community College

NYU representatives –

Dr. John Brademas
Former President of NYU/ Congressman

Stephen Polniaszek
NYU Human Relations Committee

Professor Jane Herzog
Department of Teaching and Learning

Pam Maynard
Coordinator, Center for Students with Disabilities

Sarah Bartow
Coordinator, Center for Students with Disabilities

Fashion Institute of Technology (FIT), State University of NY (SUNY)

Liz Holly-Mortensen
Director, Student Support Services

Hunter College, City University of NY (CUNY)

Donna Guptill
Acting Director of Student Support Services

AGENDA

10:00 – Arrive at NYU

Kimmel Center for University Life
60 Washington Square South
2nd floor, Student Resource Center conference room

Dr. Jim DeCaro – PEN-International
Overview

Dr. Mayumi Shirasawa
The state of postsecondary education in Japan for students who are deaf or hard-of-hearing

Dr. John Brademas
History of laws in the USA and mandating services for students who are deaf or hard-of-hearing
History of services at NYU

Stephen Polniaszek & Professor Jane Herzog
Current status of services at NYU offered to students who are deaf or hard-of-hearing

Pam Maynard & Sarah Bartow
The Center for Student Services at NYU; NETAC/PEPNet value to NYU

11:30 – Representatives from FIT and Hunter arrive

Liz Holly-Mortensen
FIT services for students who are Deaf or hard-of-hearing;
NETAC/PEPNet value to FIT

Donna Guptill
Hunter College services for students who are Deaf or hard-of-hearing;
NETAC/PEPNet value to Hunter

12:45 – Lunch

Discussion of differences between private, SUNY, CUNY institutions

2:00 – NYU

Discussion of March visit (March 18, 21, 22)

3:00 – End of meeting