Faculty of Arts Language Resource Centre
Charles University in Prague
e-mail: Daniela.Janakova@ff.cuni.cz

Description:

Hands on demonstrations of practical strategies and LT resources for teaching English to Czech deaf students will be presented. The strategies will be drawn from the experience of the Language Resource Centre at Charles University in Prague.

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this lecture, participants will be able to:

1. Compare different methods and strategies used for teaching English to deaf students at different institutions and age groups (demonstration of video sequences from English Summer Schools and study stays)
2. Get familiar with the methods and a selection of LT materials used at the LRC for teaching English writing and reading skills to the Deaf
3. Apply a set of motivation activities in their own English teaching

Plan:

1. Characterizing the situation in teaching English to the Deaf at Czech Universities
 - a. First Czech deaf graduates and first Czech deaf teachers
 - b. Czech hearing teachers of the Deaf, the necessity of their learning Czech Sign Language and their further education
 - c. Higher education of Czech interpreters of the Deaf
2. LT strategies used by the teachers of the LRC for teaching English to the Deaf
 - a. Importance of student motivation and its possible ways (use of video and computer programs, feature films, language games, pictures, drawings, toys)
 - b. Teaching writing skills (keeping diaries, news, writing essays, story telling and e-mails) and reading skills (motivating texts)
 - c. Importance of revising and testing and exams
3. Demonstration of ways of teaching English at Summer Schools at Gallaudet University and at the University of Bristol
