11. What did you like most about this workshop?

- Tip for communication
- Yes I learn interest about communicate classroom it is important to apply use for strategy way classroom.
- I like learn to identity and tip facilitating.
- It gave us an overview of the good communication can bring to Deaf students not only in class but also on their community.
- I like to learn about identity/ classroom tip/ communication technique in lighting devices technology.
- Sharing for both facilitators and participants
- All of the presentation outline is given; however, I think what I did like most is Benefits of Effective Communication.
- All
- As hearing teacher who knows a little of sign language I appreciate the presence of interpreters in front.
- The presentors obviously know what they're talking about. They presented it well by signing and talking at the same w/c is good for those who don't sign.
- The way each topic was discussed...
- The speakers were very jolly and animated. The same is true the deaf participants.
- Everything
- The sharing of expertise of the presenters which help me realize the need to know deeply the meaning of communication & how to explore it more.
- It's very interesting. I learned about communication with the Deaf.
- The tips on classroom communication.
- About the styles in the classroom; on how to communicate with the deaf.

12. Any suggestions for improvement?

- Design mainstreaming instructions in classroom setting (include interpreter, note taker, equipment, pace, teacher, time limits, tutor)
- Need to time for question.
- Extra hour a day
- More time
- Visual aids (deaf cultures)
- How I wish this could be held for more than a day. 2 1/2 hrs is too short for these topics.
- Actual classroom video or pictures could have been incorporated in the presentation.
- Everything is done well.
- Nothing
- None! The seminar was great.
- maybe more "hand-on" activities

13. What changes will you make in your teaching/administration based on this presentation?

- Need to establish communication policy
- Good! It is very useful for classroom need for learner center.
- All like to title this.
- Learn sign language and try to apply what I have learned from this activity.
- I will make clear visual aids and should show sign very well need to feedback/ expectation from students.
- Conversations with deaf students are needed to improve.

Your feedback is very important to the presenters and PEN-International. We appreciate your comments and suggestions.

- I'll prepare more visuals.
- I'll definitely adapt the "Kitchen Notes" thing.
- We are looking on how we can make the necessary accomodations in terms of assessment.
- I need to inform the teacher their role with the interpreters & present the hand out you're given.
- Well... need to further study my communication (sign language particularly) with the deaf people.
- Communication & understanding the Deaf Culture
- I would be more conscious about the deaf being visual.
