

GCCIS PhD Program Objective Assessment Form

This anonymous form should be completed by each thesis proposal/dissertation defense committee member, and returned to the GCCIS PhD program office at the end of proposal/thesis defense for quality control and program assessment purposes.

Please indicate the type of defense below using a checkmark.

Proposal Defense Dissertation Defense

Please select a rating for each of the four evaluation criteria listed below, which consider different skills of the candidate.

GCCIS PhD Program Outcome Assessment Form

	Very Weak	Weak	Acceptable	Good	Excellent
Ability to describe and explain the general literature of the discipline of computing and information sciences.
Ability to apply knowledge from the literature of their area of specialization.
Ability to critically evaluate existing research, to propose new viable research directions, and to perform original work.
Ability to explain technical material via written reports and oral presentations.

Comments (Optional):